

“Clear Night, Bright Star”

the joys, trials and adventures of life in Appalachia

by Tiffin Franciscan

Sister Jane Frances Omlor

Hop on the back of a motorcycle and begin the adventure that resulted in 27 years in the hills and hollers of West Virginia.

“Sister Jane’s stories are fresh, fun and full of faith. She’s like a modern -day evangelist, packing revelations and inspiration into parables for today. If you need a laugh, a lift, or a supplement for the soul, I highly recommend this book.

-Jan Phillips, author of No Ordinary Time, There Are Burning Bushes Everywhere.

“These wild, sometimes wildly funny adventures in Appalachia and beyond are filled with a lot of faith, hope, and love. Clear Night, Bright Star is a deeply personal look into the life of a contemporary Franciscan Sister.
