Soteriology: How we are saved or how do we become holy?

Within the Tradition

Childhood Dreams and Fantasies

Recalling childhood dreams and fantasies
allows us to plug our spirituality into the very source of our life into the power of how it
flows within us.

There is an early
developed set of our
being that is a basic orientation, a feel of life which is permanent, and which underlies all our life.

It's like the direction of a grain of wood of which we are made.

What were your childhood and young
adult dreams, visions,
fantasies, desires that came naturally?

THE DAY THAT CHANGED EVERYTHING

THE DAY THAT CHANGED EVERYTHING

What was the turning point in my life; one that I did not bring about?

The background image shows a vast, flat landscape under a cloudy sky. The horizon line is low, and the sky is filled with soft, white clouds. The text is overlaid on the sky portion of the image.

THE DAY THAT CHANGED EVERYTHING

Loss, falling in love, a big disruption, receiving an illumination/inspiration or calling?

THE DAY THAT CHANGED EVERYTHING

What was the event that reset your life?

My Life Symbol

All
for the greater
glory
of God!

A knight in the service of a great and magnanimous
king

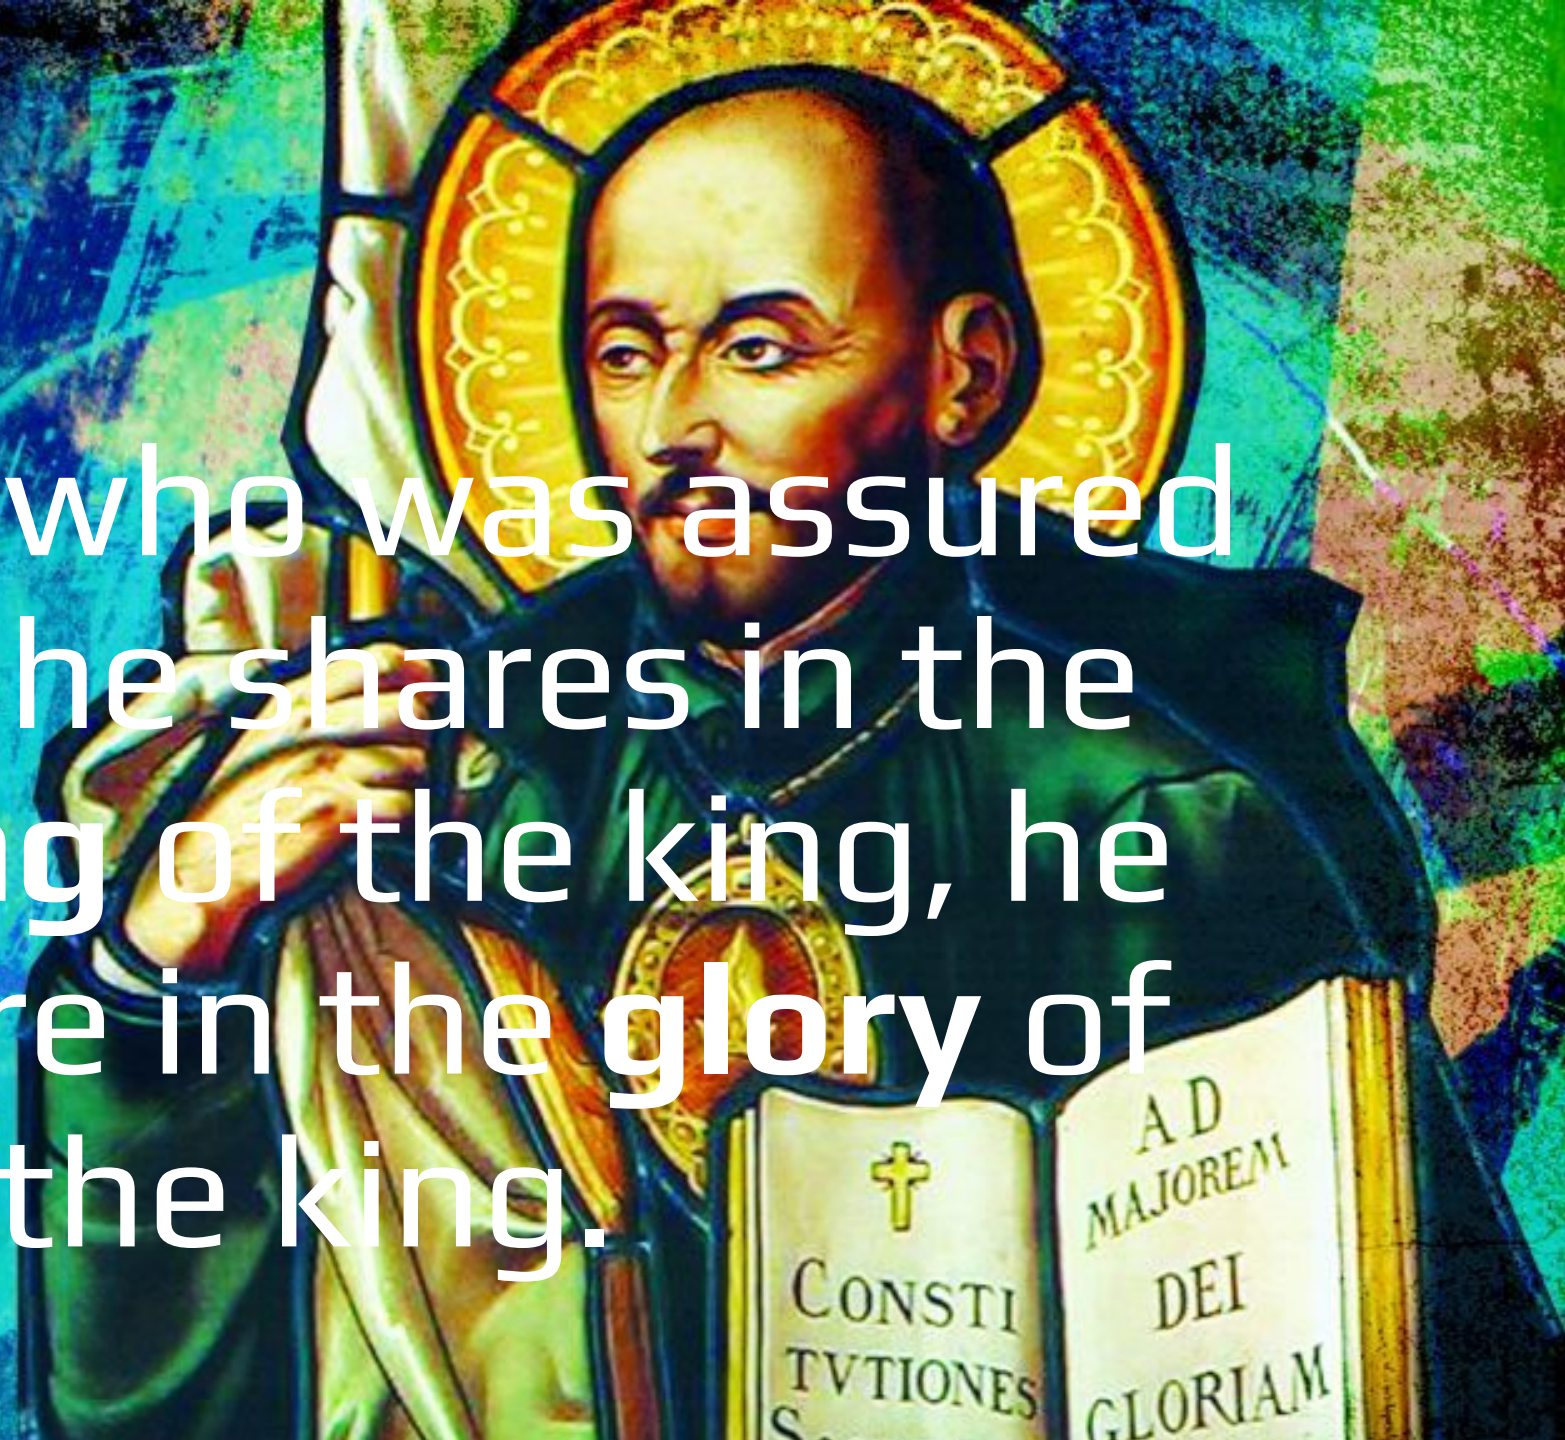

All
for the greater
glory
of God!

A knight who undertook a worldwide campaign for GOOD with companions.

All
greater
glory
of God!

A knight who was assured that as he shares in the suffering of the king, he will share in the glory of the king.

A life symbol underlies:

WHO I am.(Identity)

WHAT I do.(Mission)

WHY I do it.(Clarity of intention)

A life symbol has the power to grasp
the whole of me on all levels -
mind,
heart,
feelings,
body,
soul,
faith,
the whole
of life's experience.

What is the symbol
that seems to grasp
the whole of me –

more than thoughts or words could;

something less that I grasp
and more
grasps me?

Because of its power a life symbol comes
closest
to enabling me
to know
and express
my own lived
relationship with Mystery.

What is my life symbol?
